

SIGN ON

This is just the start.

A toolkit for the ongoing fight for racial justice

This toolkit contains information to continue the work to achieve racial justice on several fronts. The tools inside will help you be more informed and engaged by taking a serious look at the injustices around us and actively combating them.

Our aim is to give you tools to act now, act meaningfully, and act more—regardless of your capacity. To direct focus to these issues with the power and influence of your voice and action, join us and do your part!

Sign on to educate, donate, march, advocate, sign or start a petition today. Use these downloadable social graphics to share and post by linking chnng.it/toolkit in your bio.

Spread awareness and stay informed using the following hashtags:

#JusticeBreonnaTaylor #JusticeforGeorgeFloyd
#JusticeforTonyMcdade #DefundthePolice
#Blacklivesmatter #blacktranslivesmatter

GEORGE FLOYD

Over 17 million people have signed the petition to present George Floyd's case to the attorney general, and their efforts have worked. Here are more actions you can take to keep pushing for justice in his case.

Sign the Petition

Contact Minnesota Officials: Mayor Jacob Frey

Show up: Find protests via your local Black Lives Matter chapter

ANTI- RACISM EDUCATION

Be actively anti-racist—do your part to call out racism in your family, among your friends, and your communities.

Inward Action: Educate yourself - Anti-Racism

Inward Action: Educate yourself - Racial Justice

Inward Action: Do the work

Donate: National Bail Fund Network

Donate: American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU)

BREONNA TAYLOR

Just like we showed up enmasse for George, we must continue to show up for Breonna Taylor. Currently, Louisville Police have temporarily suspended “no-knock” search warrants—but that’s not enough. Here’s what you can do to demand that Louisville officials call for the arrest of the police officers who killed her.

Sign the Petition
Contact
Louisville Officials
Donate

TONY MCDADE

All Black lives matter—trans lives included. Tony McDade, a Black trans man, was shot and killed at the hands of police in Tallahassee, FL. Details surrounding his death are still unclear, but you can still use your voice to hold the officers involved accountable by signing and sharing the “Justice for Tony McDade” petition, calling Tallahassee officials to demand justice, and support Black trans lives by using the hashtag #blacktranslivesmatter.

Sign the Petition
Email Government Officials
Donate: Tony McDade
Donate: The Okra Project
Donate: The Tony McDade Mental Health
Donate: Homeless Black Trans Women Fund

DEFUND THE POLICE

Defunding the police means allocating resources away from police departments to other sorely underfunded parts of the community like education, social services, housing, and more. Defund12 is a crowd-sourced platform dismantling racial injustice by providing you with the emails of your local government officials to contact to take this action.

Sign the Petition

Email Government Officials

Donate: Innocence Project

Read: The History of Policing

RECHARGE

Taking time to replenish your spirit allows you to continue to fight against injustice while taking care of your mental health. Here is a list of mental health resources curated by and for Black people in addition to a mediation app created for People of Color communities to heal and support.

Inward Action: Mental Health Resources

Inward Action: Meditation Resource

Inward Action: Healing and Support

STAY INFORMED

A collection of great platforms and organizations to follow in order to continue to stay active and engaged.

Black Lives Matter: Join the movement to fight for freedom, liberation and justice.

The Movement for Black Lives: Support Black-led, rapid-response efforts and long-term strategy, policy and infrastructure investment in the movement ecosystem change.org